

Purpose: This tutorial is meant to serve as a supplement to the Process OnLine-PL Dental Application Details tutorial.

NOTE: Detailed explanations are required for most "Yes" responses throughout the application.

PART I-PROCESS APPLICATION DETAILS:

From the Practice/Billing Information page:

1. Type the applicant's password and birth date into the fields and click on the Next button. The business structure page displays.
2. Click to select all business structure options that apply to the applicant.
3. Type the applicant's national provider ID number, date of incorporation, legal entity and primary contact name into the fields.
4. Click to select "Yes" or "No" in response to the questions and click on the Next button. The affiliations page displays.
5. Click to select "Yes" or "No" in response to the questions.
6. Type the number of dentists, additional dentist names and SSN's into the fields.
7. Click on the Next button. The next affiliation page displays.
8. Click to select whether "non-employed dentists" work with the applicant/ their corporation without a written contract.
9. Type the number of dental units within the applicant's office and click to select "Yes" or "No" in response to the questions.
10. Click on the Next button. The schooling/certification page displays.

From the Schooling/Certification page:

1. Type the applicant's dental school name into the field and click to select whether they are "certified by an approved specialty board." NOTE: If "Yes," type the date the applicant was certified and their board status into the fields.
2. Click on the Next button. The licensing page displays.
3. Type the patient percentage mix into the fields and click to select whether the applicant has a physician or surgeon in the practice.
4. Type the applicant's state and license numbers into the designated fields, and click to select the related status, if applicable.
5. Type the applicant's narcotics/DEA; anesthesia permit; National Provider ID and last four digits of SSN into the designated fields.
6. Type the applicant's current insurer and annual premium into the fields.
7. Click to select the current limits, whether there has been a coverage lapse, and on the Next button. The procedures page displays.

From the Procedures page:

1. Click to select "Yes" or "No" in response to the questions.
2. Type the number of complex cases performed each year that cost more than $20,000 into the field. NOTE: If "1" or more, type an explanation into the field and click on the Next button. The anesthetics/analgesia page displays.
3. Click to select "Yes" or "No" in response to the questions. NOTE: If "Yes" to any, type the agent kind and how often they are used.
4. Click to select who administers the anesthesia and on the Next button. The other exposure information page displays.
5. Click to select whether the applicant owns/operates a dental laboratory. NOTE: If "Yes," type an estimated patient work percentage into the field.
6. Click to select whether the applicant owns/operates another business.
7. For any signed, contractual agreements, type a description of services and identify parties in the designated field.
8. Click to select whether the applicant has agreed to hold any other party harmless for services performed.
9. Type a line entry into the fields to identify any additional insureds requesting to be named on the policy, if applicable.
10. Type an additional explanation into the designated field, if applicable, and click on the Next button. The consent page displays.

From the Consent page:

1. Type the number of patients examined or treated each day into the designated field.
2. Click to select whether the applicant obtains informed consent prior to each procedure and the type of consent.
3. Click to select "Yes" or "No" in response to the questions.
4. Click to select how often patient information is updated. NOTE: If selected "Occasionally," type an explanation into the field.
5. Click on the Next button. The claims and experience Information page displays.
6. Click to select "Yes" or "No" in response to the questions and provide explanations for "Yes" responses at the bottom of the page.
7. Click on the Next button. The next claims and experience information page displays.
8. Click to select "Yes" or "No" in response to the questions.
9. Click on the Next button. The next claims & experience information page displays.
10. Click to select "Yes" or "No" in response to the questions and type an explanation into the fields if applicable.
11. Click on the Next button. The additional insured's page displays. NOTE: This page only applies if additional insureds exist.
12. Type the additional insured's name, address, city, and zip into the fields.
13. Click to select the insured type and state and on the Next button. The professional liability quote indication page displays.